Under Government Order No.Fl.3910-1/B.27-11-1 dated 16th March 1912, Mr. R. Ranga Rao, B.A., B.L., was appointed Assistant to the Registrar of Co-Operative Societies on Rs.150-25-250 and placed on probation for a period of one year.

2. About the end of March 1914 Mr. Ranga Rao submitted a memorial to Government praying for the status of a gazetted officer and a pay of Rs.300-40-500. In submitting Mr. Ranga Rao's representation the Registrar of Co-Operative Societies stated that Mr.Ranga Rao's qualifications as well as the requirements of the Department would justify his appointment as an Assistant Commissioner.

As the officer had just then reached the maximum of his grade pay, the question was ordered to be deferred and brought up for consideration a year later.

4. The subject was accordingly reconsidered at the Council meeting held on the 2nd July 1915 and the Council are of opinion that Mr. Ranga Rao may be given the status of an Assistant Commissioner and that he may be entrusted with an independent charge in the Co-operative Department, subject to the general control of the Registrar and tried in that capacity for some time before the question of his promotion is taken into consideration. The result of this would be that he will be given promotion by triennial increments of Rs.50 till he reached the pay of Rs.450. This has been made clear in the draft order put up herewith.

I have little to add to the opinion expressed in my letter No.1572/C.S.186 dated the 18th April 1913. I consider that Mr. R. Ranga Rao's qualifications as well as the requirements of the Department would justify his appointment as an Assistant Commissioner with a suitable local allowance for the technical nature of his duties.

Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

B a n g a l o r e.

(Through: The Registrar of Co-operative Societies in Mysore.)

Sir,

In Government Proceedings No. Fl.3910-1/ B.27-1-1 dated the 16th March 1912, the Government appointed me as Assistant to the Registrar of Co-operative Societies on a pay of Rs.150/- rising by annual increments of - Rs.25/- to Rs.250/-. On an application submitted by me in December 1912, praying for an improvement in my pay and prospects in service, the Government were pleased to sanction two increments in advance to me with effect from the 1st April 1913. In pursuance of this order I reach the maximum of my present grade on the 1st April next.

The sympathetic consideration which my last memorial has received at the hands of the Government emboldens me to submit this further representation for their favourable orders.

My claim for improved prospects are based upon the fact that, while my general educational qualifications and training are not much below those of an average member on the Gazetted Staff of the State Service, my pay and status are inferior. I am a B.A. and B.L. of the Madras University. In the B.A. examination, I took a first class in the English language and won the Political Economy Medal. On taking the B.L. degree, I underwent the Madras High Court Apprentices' course with a view to practise as a High Court Vakil. But I was forced to drop this idea, and took up an appointment in the General and Revenue Secretariat. After about fourteen months of service there, the Government were pleased to send me out to Europe for training in Co-operative work. As regards my work in the Co-operative Department, I would invite the attention of the Government to letter No.676/C.S. dated the 14th December 1912 and letter No.1572/C.S. dated the 17th April 1913 from the Registrar of Co-operative Societies to the Secretary to the Government.

Since my appointment as Assistant to the Registrar, the work of the Co-operative Department has grown in importance and its scope enlarged. In April 1912 there were about 160 Societies in the State and they were mostly of a uniform type. The present number of Societies is about 490 and, though the bulk of them are still credit Societies, Societies undertaking other forms of Co-operative work are coming into into vogue. This more than threefold increase in the number of Societies in existence, and the corresponding increase of members and working capital have added to the quality, quantity, and variety of the work of the Registrar's Office. They have also necessitated a large addition to the Staff of the Department and have considerably increased the responsibilities of the Registrar's Assistant.

I have on a previous occasion, pointed out that, in British India, Assistant Registrars of Co-operative Societies are recruited from among the Officers in the general line. They are not men who have specialised in their work but who pick up the necessary knowledge in the course of their duties. But they nevertheless draw salaries ranging from Rs.350/- to Rs.600/- per mensem, and their prospects are not, as is likely to be the case with me, limited by the opportunities for promotion in one Department.

In these circumstances I venture to submit that the pay I am drawing and the status given to me are inadequate. If, in view of my qualifications, both general and special, the responsible nature of my work, and the limited scope for promotion ~~available~~ open to me, the Government are of opinion that my case deserves a special consideration, I pray that they may be pleased to give me the status of a Gazetted Officer and a pay of of Rs.300 - $\frac{40}{1}$ -500.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

R. RangaRao
